

SALES:

FAVA encourages sales, and will retain a 30% commission on sales; however, artwork submitted does not have to be for sale. If a work is not for sale, the artist must still declare the dollar value on the entry form for insurance purposes. Checks for works sold will be mailed to artists in January.

PICKUP:

All unsold pieces must be picked up during times specified in the calendar below. If you wish to authorize anyone else to pick up your work for you, write their name in the space provided at the bottom of the Entry Form. When picking up work, bring personal ID. Works not picked up by January 15th will be moved to a secured storage area and be subject to a storage fee. Unclaimed work may become the property of FAVA.

LIABILITY and AGREEMENT:

All work will be insured during the exhibition against theft and vandalism. Work may be photographed by FAVA for publicity purposes. Although works will be handled with utmost care, FAVA cannot assume responsibility for damage such as minor scratches to frames, or breakage of framing glass or Plexiglas.

Dear Artist,

We would like to invite you to exhibit your artwork in FAVA's 30th annual Member's Holiday Show from November 15th through December 18th, 2009.

Last year, 70 artists from 6 counties exhibited in our non-juried Member's Show. This is a wonderful opportunity for our professional and amateur artists to share their creativity with the public in a handsome professional setting at the New Union Center for the Arts.

You may join or renew your membership when you deliver your work ($25/Senior, $35/Individual or $50/Family). If you cannot deliver or pickup as scheduled, please call ahead. There is no entry fee.

ARTIST BIO BOOK:

We will be assembling a 3 ring binder of artist biographies to have available for browsing in the gallery during the show. You are welcome to bring your bio (up to four 8 1/2" x 11" pages, your name on each page) when you deliver your work.
